Mission Statement

The Church of Saint Leonard of Port Maurice believes that, with our worship and fellowship experience and faith as our base, we can achieve social justice through education and outreach that guides us on our Christian journey in the community.

Keep in your prayers parish members who are ill: Josephine Candalisa, Anne Schaak, Mary Ann Nash, Gladys Turner, Irene Donohue

CONGRATULATIONS

To our three young people who are receiving the Eucharist for the first time today. Please pray for Alberto, Sarai, and Harley as they receive the Body and Blood of Christ today! Thank you to their parents and their teacher Erin O'Leary who prepared them for this sacrament.

Seeking housework: A parishioner of St. Leonard is seeking work cleaning houses. Her name is Irma Arfista and you may reach her at 651-354-4360

Loaves & Fishes: We still need committed people to show up once a month to physically help prepare and serve at Loaves & Fishes. The next scheduled date is May 9. The leaders who have been keeping this ministry alive over the last two years have asked that the current participating parishes partner with one another and share the cost of competently planning, preparing and serving on our one day a month ministry. St Francis Cabrini is willing to share the expense with us and will pay $250/month for their part. You will find envelopes for Loaves and Fishes in the back of church. Please think about what you can donate over and above your weekly contribution over the next year and watch for our fundraising plan. Donations should be paid to the order of St. Leonard, with "L&F" in the memo field. We will put up the poster each month before the second Tuesday. Thank you.

TRUST opportunities: Work on homebuilding with TRUST Builders! Choose your Saturdays on which begin at 8:30 am: May 13, June 10, July 8, August 12, October 14, November 11, December 19. We also need church crews to provide food support. Lunch will be provided. Just bring some work gloves and a great attitude. You don't have to be a carpenter. We will be working with job supervisors, and each week we have a TRUST Builder site coordinator who will assist in organizing and deploying volunteers on various projects at the jobsite. All levels of experience are needed. To sign up, email John Corlett, TRUST Builders Coordinator at jrcorlett@comcast.net or call him at 612-839-6566 (only in the evening)

Warrant forgiveness: An opportunity to have a Hennepin County misdemeanor warrant forgiven is being held on Saturday, May 20, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Sabathani Community Center, 310 E. 38th St. For more information, visit: www.aclu-mn.org/resources/amnesty/ To see if your warrant qualifies for forgiveness without arrest, call the county at 612-348-2040.

Theology Day: What is the church's place in an increasingly secular, pluralistic society? Is it our mission to be in control as a way to advance the kingdom of God? If not, how do we bring about just, humane structures and policies in society? To address such questions, at St. John's School of Theology Theology Day we will engage in a theological reflection on power and its relation to love and control. Our reflection will be informed by the character of God's power as revealed in Scripture and the person of Christ. It will also consider Vatican II's Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, Decree on Religious Liberty, the example of Pope Francis, and the exercise of power in the church. May. 11th, check-in from 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and presentation from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., Saint Joseph the Worker Catholic Church, Maple Grove, MN. Free event. Light refreshments provided. Registration is required: www.csbsju.edu/sot/theology-day, 320-363-3560 or sot-sem@csbsju.edu.

Marriage Encounter weekend: The next available Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is Jul 14-16, 2017 in Buffalo, MN. Early registration is highly recommended. *Amen, Amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do,
and will do greater ones than these,
because I am going to the Father." (JN 14:12)*

These words from the end of today's Gospel are challenging. Jesus says we will do greater works than he did. Seems unbelievable doesn't it. Yet, if we understand the last clause, because I am going to the Father, we might understand the possibilities of his claim.

The "because I am going to the Father," indicates that the Holy Spirit will come and accomplish through us the "greater works than these." It's not what we can accomplish, it is what God can accomplish through us and in us by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus' words are affirmed in what we are hearing in this Easter Season from the Acts of the Apostles. Peter and the boys are doing many of the things Jesus did. Their words too are accompanied by signs to affirm their teaching, and they are having great success in their preaching as many are being added to their number. So with the gift of the Holy Spirit they continue the mission of God through Christ. The Church, you and I, continue this mission. This is why we must embrace Jesus' words in faith and trust that the Holy Spirit can accomplish in us what God desires.

A great prayer for all of us, is to call upon the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to live in us, and if need be, to remove what keeps our spirit from being united to God's Spirit in the gift of God's love.

Beyond Career to Calling: The Vocation of the Business Leader, Dr. Michael Naughton, Ph.D, Center for Catholic Studies, University of St. Thomas

A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day

As important as work is in our lives, it can disorder rather than develop. For some of us, work is little more than a daily drudgery, a necessary but ultimately meaningless way to make money to pay bills and fund weekends and vacations. For others of us, it dominates our lives. Work takes the best of us and leaves little for others. An unexpected reason for this disordered relationship to work is the loss, within our culture, of the habits of leisure. Or so argues Professor Michael Naughton of the Center for Catholic Studies at the University of St. Thomas. Naughton does not mean leisure in the now customary sense of amusement or distraction. Rather, he wants to restore spiritual contemplation and education to their proper places in the ordered and integrated life. Naughton believes that our culture's leaders—and specifically business leaders—need to cultivate these disciplines of leisure in order to execute their offices well. Drawing on the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace document Vocation of the Business Leader plus business research, cases, and wisdom literature, Naughton will argue that we'll never get work right unless we get leisure right!Thursday, May 18, 2017 - 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. The Minneapolis Club, 729 2nd Avenue South Minneapolis, MN 55402, Limited Seating, registration required: Lunch $20 (non-refundable)
